Annual Report 2013

This Annual Report acknowledges donations made to the Museum of Fine Arts during our 2013 fiscal year, January 1-December 31. Gifts supporting today's operations and ensuring the Museum's future are vital to fulfillment of our mission in the community.

Letter from the Director

The vibrant community of the Museum of Fine Arts is defined by events bringing people together: inspirational new programs for young people; improvements and additions to the museum building; gifts of art to the permanent collection; inspiring exhibitions; and exciting events. As you will see in the pages of this Annual Report, 2013 offered marvelous examples of this type of community engagement.

In many ways, the centerpiece of our year was the complete renovation of the permanent collection galleries and the Marly Room. With natural light now restored to the galleries along Beach Drive, the experience of visiting our collection has raised the bar of excellence. Among our principal exhibitions, Philip Pearlstein's People, Places, Things brought a massive retrospective of one of our country's greatest painters. The activities of the Margaret Acheson Stuart Society brought new excitement and won new friends.

One of our most exciting new programs has been our partnership with Pinellas County schools. Seeing the impact of all sixth grade students visiting the MFA as part of their social studies curriculum is truly inspirational. These young minds are the future leaders of our community and are sharing the experience of 4,500 years of human history that helps them better understand the world around them.

As we approach the 50th anniversary of the Museum in 2015, it is with deep gratitude that we celebrate the outstanding dedication and support of those who believe in the mission of the Museum of Fine Arts. Connecting the community through art continues to be our goal. For young families visiting for the first time, or individuals attending one of the 200 public events offered during the year, we exist to open eyes, minds and hearts.

Art inspires life, and those whose names are listed in this report have given of their time, talent, and treasure to ensure the inspiration that carries us forward for generations to come.

With heartfelt appreciation,

KENT LYDECKER

Exhibitions

The Art of Golf

November 3, 2012 to February 17, 2013

The first major museum exhibition in the United States devoted to this popular game and organized by the High Museum of Art in Atlanta and the National Galleries of Scotland, this exhibit showcased four centuries of golf and feature approximately 90 works by artists such as Rembrandt van Rijn, Hendrick Avercamp, Sir Henry Raeburn, Childe Hassam, George Bellows, Norman Rockwell, Andy Warhol, and the celebrated photographer Harold Edgerton.

Phillip Pearlstein's People, Places, Things

March 2 to June 16, 2013

The exhibition's comprehensive approach illuminated Pearlstein's significant contribution to American realism, and with his recent work, demonstrated his unflagging craft and energy. The exhibition was organized by the Museum of Fine Arts and New York independent curator Patterson Sims.

Color Acting: Abstract Works from the Permanent Collection

July 6 to September 22, 2013

Color Acting combined works from the permanent collection and special loans to show fluctuating properties of color and its effects on visual perception. Inspired by Josef Albers, the title references his statement that "Painting is color acting. The act is to change character and behavior, mood and tempo."

Mixing Metaphors: The Aesthetic, the Social, and the Political in African American Art (Works from the Bank of America Collection)

October 5, 2013 to January 5, 2014

These works from Bank of America and curated by art historian and photographer Deborah Willis focused on more than 90 paintings, prints, drawings, photographs, sculptures and mixed media works by thirty-six artists. Body politics, race, class and gender are a few of the topics that surface in these works of art, which depict moments from the extraordinary to the mundane.

Photographing the City

February 9 to May 26, 2013

Photographing the City was developed by USF graduate students in a fall seminar taught by visiting Kennedy scholar Katherine Bussard, Associate Curator of Photography at the Art Institute of Chicago. Half of the classes were taught at the Museum, and many of the images are drawn from The Ludmila Dandrew and Chitranee Drapkin Collection, now numbering more than 14,000 works.

Pleasure Grounds and Restoring Spaces: Photographs of Our National Parks

June 1 to October 6, 2013

At once a seemingly untouched virgin land and a territory of limitless opportunity for development, the American landscape has always fueled the imagination of artists. This exhibition from the permanent collection of the Museum of Fine Arts included several photographs from the newest donations to The Ludmila Dandrew and Chitranee Drapkin Collection, which continues to enrich and expand the MFA's photography collection.

New Acquisitions: Works on Paper and Photography

October 26, 2013 to March 2, 2014

More than 40 exceptional works on paper and photographs, all added in the last five years, were on display. The MFA photography collection is one of the largest and most important in the Southeast and was admirably represented in this exhibition. Included were choice images by George Booth, Margaret Bourke-White, Ben Shahn, George Dureau, Sylvie Eyberg, Ernst Hass, Jason Hailey, Tom Kramer, Amanda Means, Arno Minkkinen, Edward Steichen, and Shen Wei.

"The collection is at the heart of the Museum. Seeing its dramatic development has inspired us all."

Programs

Education is central to the mission of the Museum of Fine Arts. The Museum provides a place for people of all ages to experience art, culture, history and ideas, and takes art into the community. The Museum's docents complete a year-long art history class and then a year of internship to share their knowledge with the public in both general and specific tours and programs. The MFA collaborates with dozens of community organizations to connect the community through art. The following groups and organizations are among those served through educational programs at the Museum of Fine Arts:

Pinellas County Schools
Blossom Montessori School for the Deaf
Lighthouse of Pinellas
Southeastern Guide Dogs
The R'Club
All Children's Hospital
Big Brothers Big Sisters
Tampa Bay Times Newspaper in Education Program
ACE (Arts for Complete Education)
Westminster Communities of St. Petersburg
The Fountains at Boca Ciega Bay
Eckerd College
USF Tampa
USF St. Petersburg
Neighborhood Associations
St. Vincent DePaul Center for Hope
VSA Florida

Signature educational programs:

Youth and Family:

- Family Yoga
- MFA: Make and Take Saturdays
- Family Days
- Painting in the Park
- Scavenger Hunts
- New Parent Gallery Conversations
- Family Pass
- Strokes of Genius
- Magic Carpet
- Field Trips
- Stop and See with Me
- An Artistic Discovery

Adults:

- Educator Workshops
- Parrish Lecture Series
- Coffee Talks for 55+
- Gallery Talks
- Art Bites
- UnchARTed Thursday evenings
- General Docent Tours

2013 Gallery Renovation

With the last expansion doubling the Museum's space in 2008, the permanent collection was the key area of focus in 2013. Thanks to the outstanding generosity of these donors, the newly renovated spaces including the Great Hall were reopened with a much-anticipated celebration in September 2013. New wood floors, additional lighting, fresh paint and colors, the reopening of windows to Beach Drive as well as a long-closed window to Bayshore in the Marly Room, now showcase art

Annual Giving

The Annual Fund is the cornerstone of philanthropy at the MFA because these unrestricted gifts support essential operating expenses and special projects. This crucial part of the museum's revenue helps to provide well-maintained art galleries, special exhibitions, and educational programs. Annual contributions make the MFA an exciting and dependable resource for the greater Tampa Bay area and a vital cultural asset in St. Petersburg.

More than a Museum, the MFA is an experience.

In addition to world-class exhibits, the Museum offers much more to the community. Visitors enjoy hearing music in the Marly Room, dining at the MFA Café, shopping in the Museum Store, researching in the library or hosting weddings and other memorable milestone events by renting the Conservatory, Membership Garden and other spaces throughout the Museum. Come for the art, and stay for the day.

Legacy Society

The Legacy Society is one of the Museum's most important donor groups – these individuals share a vision for the future and demonstrate their dedication to their community by ensuring access to art for generations to come. To join the Legacy Society, members affirm their intent to include the Museum of Fine Arts in their estate plans. Special events are held during the year to honor this commitment to the arts.

Stuart Society

Named for the Museum's founder, The Stuart Society is the largest support organization of the Museum of Fine Arts with over 350 members and provisionals. The Society's mission is to promote the welfare of the Museum; to stimulate public interest and participation in Museum's activities; to increase the Museum's general membership; and, to maintain a close acquaintance with the activities of the Museum.

The Stuart Society is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization in its own right, and as such, is a major philanthropic contributor to the MFA through heroic fundraising events that include the Plaza of Honor Bricks Project, Wine Weekend St. Pete, Art in Bloom, Affaires d'Art and SmARTly Dressed. In 2013, Stuart Society members collectively contributed 10,986 volunteer hours, and Stuart Society event proceeds resulted in a gift of more than $512,000, the single largest donation to the Museum in The Stuart Society's 51-year history.

Collectors Circle

President, Seymour Gordon

For those with special interest in the collection and connoisseurship, The Collector's Circle enjoys activities that foster an appreciation of art through lectures and study trips sponsored by Northern Trust and RBC Wealth Management respectively. In April, the group held a Gala with proceeds going toward the acquisition of new works for the Museum, under the guidance of the Director and Chief Curator. In preparation for the Museum's 50th anniversary, funds are being accumulated for a major acquisition.

Marly Music Society

Co-Chairs Dr. Richard Eliason, Demi Rahall

Marly Music Society members foster an understanding of the relationship between the performing and visual arts. Membership supports the museum concert series and other special events. Music in the Marly summer series brings world-class musicians to the area, as well as providing a venue for local musicians, and St. Petersburg Opera Company and Florida Orchestra performances, in keeping with founder Margaret Stuart's love of music.

Docents

Susan Gordon, Docent Chair

These dedicated individuals give of their time and talent to bring art to life for our visitors with an insider's view of the Museum by focusing on specific highlights of the permanent collection or particular exhibitions. Thirteen times a week, in addition to reserved tours, these individuals leave lasting impressions on any group, from professional and business associations to social organizations to students.

Ways to Give

Outright Gifts
Outright gifts can include cash, appreciated property, gifts of art or other tangible personal property. All cash gifts are 100% tax deductible.

Gifts of Securities
By giving appreciated securities to the Museum, donors may avoid paying capital gains tax and receive a tax deduction for the fair market value of the gifts. For details on the transfer of stocks, please contact the Advancement Office.

Gifts of Real Estate
Real property can be deeded to the Museum and may warrant a sizeable tax deduction now while continuing to occupy the property for life. Your personal tax advisor may be able to help you select the best arrangement to suit your individual situation.

Planned Gifts
Planned gifts such as a charitable remainder trusts, charitable lead trusts, retained life estates, retirement plan designations, life insurance designations, or bequests may reduce inheritance taxes and benefit the Museum. Check with your financial advisor for the best plan, and let us know of your intent so we can recognize you as a member of our Legacy Society.

Naming Opportunities
In recognition of leadership gifts, there are naming opportunities throughout the museum's main building, and the Hazel Hough Wing. Learn more about the naming opportunities by contacting the Advancement Office.

Matching Gifts
Many businesses will match an employee contribution, effectively doubling or sometimes tripling the impact of your donation. Check with your company's personnel office for more information.

Legacy Gifts
Naming the Museum of Fine Arts as a beneficiary of an estate is a significant means of ensuring that future generations benefit from the experiences to be shared at the MFA. Please notify the Advancement Office of your intent, so that we may appropriately recognize your vision and support as a member of our Legacy Society.

All gifts qualify as charitable donations and are tax exempt under our status as a 501(c)3 non-profit organization in the State of Florida under federal tax ID number 59-0949278. For more information or to make a gift, please contact the Museum of Fine Arts Advancement Office (727) 896-2667, or make a gift online at www.fine-arts.org.

Thank you for connecting the community through art!

This report seeks to acknowledge those who provided the resources to sustain and strengthen the Museum of Fine Arts in St. Petersburg between January 1 and December 31, 2013. Every effort was made to ensure accuracy. If an error has inadvertently occurred, please accept our sincere apologies and contact the Advancement Office (727) 896-2667 extension 250, so our records can be amended.
