

Located along the beautiful downtown waterfront of St. Petersburg, Florida, the Museum of Fine Arts, St. Petersburg, (MFA) is a collecting museum serving more than 120,000 annual residents and visitors to the Tampa Bay area since its founding in 1965. The MFA is proud to present the only comprehensive art collection on Florida's west coast, spanning 5,000 years of civilization in about 20,000 objects from antiquity to today. Highlights include masterpieces from Monet, Corot, Morisot, O'Keeffe, De Kooning, Rauschenberg, Whistler and others; a sculpture garden; a glass gallery featuring works by Tiffany, Steuben, and Chihuly; and one of the largest and most respected photography collections in the Southeastern United States.

In a growing city with multiple museums and a thriving cultural life, the MFA provides the broad context into which all the other local arts organizations fit. The MFA presents a wide variety of art experiences across the spectrum of time and culture – from blockbusters to provocative contemporary exhibitions by emerging artists and scholarly shows that illuminate the depth and beauty of the museum's growing collection. With 17,000 square feet in collections galleries and 7700 square feet for temporary exhibitions (including a more intimately scaled Works on Paper gallery) the MFA brings art to life as no other museum in the Tampa Bay area can. In addition to its robust exhibition program, the MFA engages its community through exciting public programs and events, and serves our students through youth programs and a partnership with the Pinellas County School System. About 6,000 public school students attend the MFA each year as part of their 6th grade social studies curriculum.
