

ABOVE THE FOLD

NEW EXPRESSIONS IN ORIGAMI

JUNE 22–SEPTEMBER 22, 2019

UPCOMING PROGRAMS

1,000 CRANES FOLDING PARTY

SATURDAY, JULY 27
10 AM–2 PM

(INSTRUCTIONAL WORKSHOP 10 AM–12 PM)

In Japan there is a legend that a person who folds 1,000 cranes will be granted their deepest wish. Join us in folding 1,000 cranes to send to the Children's Peace Monument in Hiroshima, Japan. Students from Takamatsu, St. Petersburg's Sister City in Japan, will teach attendees how to create folded cranes several different ways.

Free with Museum admission.

MARLY MUSIC CONCERT: ERIK AND MARTIN DEMAINE ACCOMPANIED BY PIANIST JOHN C. O'LEARY III

SUNDAY, AUGUST 11
2–4 PM

During this performance piece blending art and science, Above the Fold artists and computer scientists Erik and Martin Demaine will fold their signature "Curved-Crease Sculptures," and place them inside a self-blown glass sculpture while John C. O'Leary III, a Mexican-American jazz pianist, composer and neuroscientist, accompanies the father-son team on piano.

$25 per ticket; $15 for Marly Music Society Members and Students (with current ID); Tickets include Museum admission.

CINEMA AT THE MFA: KUBO AND THE TWO STRINGS AND CRANES SHORT FILM

SATURDAY, AUGUST 24
11 AM–1:30 PM

Kubo and the Two Strings is a 2016 animated film about a young origami storyteller, Kubo, who wants to know more about his father, a fallen samurai. Prior to the feature film is the premiere of Cranes, a short film set entirely in St. Pete by local teen filmmaker Alex Archipov. Origami activities for all ages will be included as part of the event.

Free with Museum admission.
