

The Young Patrons Collective (YPC) is a dynamic affinity group of the Museum of Fine Arts, St. Petersburg (MFA), dedicated to cultivating the next generation of arts supporters, advocates, and cultural leaders. Designed for individuals under the age of 45, the Collective creates meaningful pathways for young professionals, creatives, innovators, and collectors to connect deeply with the Museum, its mission, and one another.

A COMMUNITY OF EMERGING CULTURAL LEADERS

Members of the Young Patrons Collective are part of an energetic, forward-thinking network that celebrates the role of the arts in building a vibrant civil society. YPC provides a welcoming environment for early-career arts enthusiasts and seasoned young collectors alike to explore the MFA's exhibitions, collections, and programs while forming lasting relationships across Tampa Bay.

EXCLUSIVE ACCESS & UNFORGETTABLE EXPERIENCES

Membership in the Young Patrons Collective grants unparalleled access to the MFA, including:

- Networking Nights bringing together rising leaders from across industries
- Private Exhibition Previews with curators, artists, and museum leadership
- Behind-the-Scenes Access such as vault tours, conservation demonstrations, and collection walkthroughs
- Signature Social Events blending art, culture, music, and community
- Art + Ideas Programs featuring voices shaping today's creative landscape

These experiences provide insight into how the museum operates, how collections grow, and how art inspires civic engagement, dialogue, and cultural understanding.

MEMBERSHIP LEVELS

To join the Young Patrons Collective, individuals must maintain an active MFA general membership. This ensures all YPC participants are fully connected to the Museum's mission, exhibitions, and year-round programming. After securing or renewing a museum membership, YPC members may enroll at one of the following philanthropic tiers:

YOUNG PATRONS IN THEIR 20S

Annual Contribution: $1,000

An impactful entry level for emerging leaders beginning their philanthropic engagement.

YOUNG PATRONS IN THEIR 30S

Annual Contribution: $2,000

Designed for mid-career professionals seeking deeper cultural engagement and connection.

YOUNG PATRONS 40-45 YEARS OLD

Annual Contribution: $2,500

Ideal for established young leaders and collectors committed to sustaining the MFA's artistic, educational, and community-driven work.

All: Attend and promote young patron events & recruit 5 new members to the MFA.

GENERAL MUSEUM MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENT

All YPC members must hold an MFA membership at any level, such as:

- Individual — $75
- Dual — $125
- Family — $150
- Sustainer, Patron, or above for those wishing to further support the Museum

Any membership tier qualifies; individuals may choose the level that best reflects how they wish to engage with and support the MFA.

YOUNG PATRONS COLLECTIVE BENEFITS

All YPC members receive:

- Invitations to exclusive YPC gatherings, socials, and networking events
- Private access to exhibition previews and behind-the-scenes experiences
- Opportunities to engage with MFA curators, artists, and leadership
- Recognition as a Young Patrons Collective supporter in MFA publications
- A community committed to arts, culture, philanthropy, and civic leadership

INVESTING IN THE FUTURE OF THE MFA

Participation in the Young Patrons Collective is a powerful form of cultural stewardship. Member contributions support exhibitions, education initiatives, and community outreach programs—ensuring the MFA remains a welcoming, innovative, and inspiring institution for all.

The Young Patrons Collective is more than a membership—it is a movement shaping the next generation of arts leaders in St. Petersburg.

We would love your involvement in the Young Patrons Collective
